Creative solution

Our team of creative professionals work with attention to detail and are focused on creating effective and functional design solutions. We use advanced technology and communication skills to ensure the high quality of our work and the satisfaction of our customers.

The studio is based on open and friendly interaction and cooperation. We listen to you carefully and ask a lot of questions, taking into account your ideas, philosophy and business goals to ensure a successful outcome.

O2 • RESEARCH

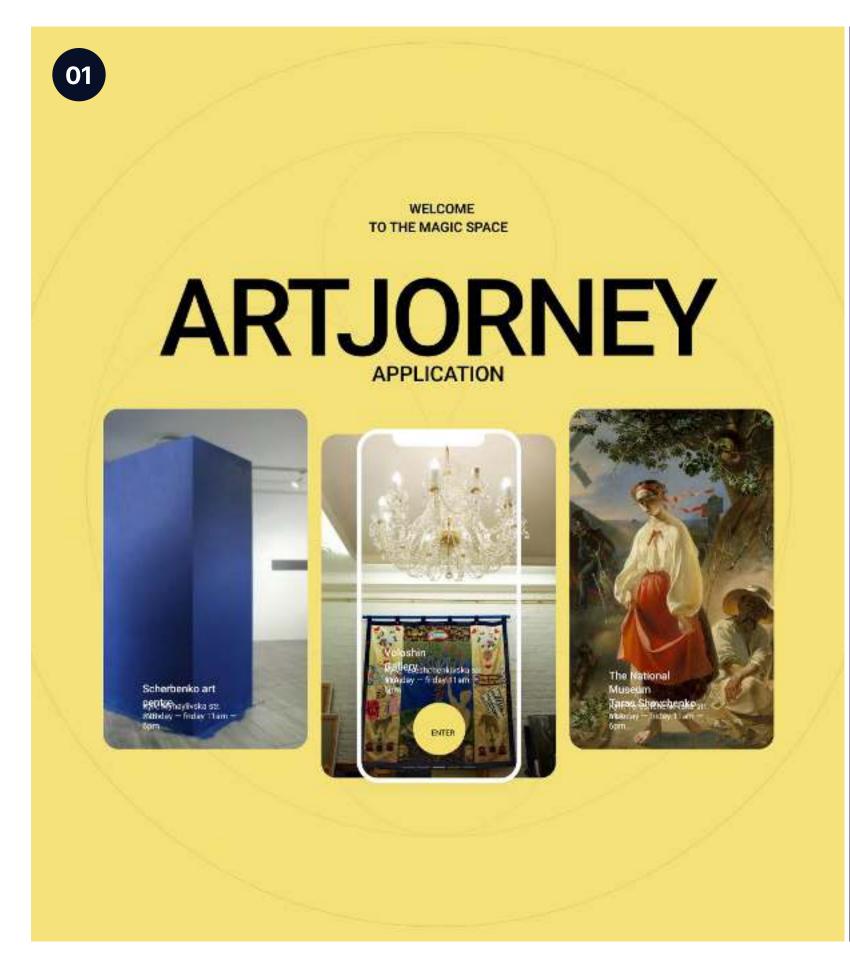

Based on the gathered data, we develop design solutions that reflect your brand values, meet the expectations of your target audience, and satisfy the requirements of your product.

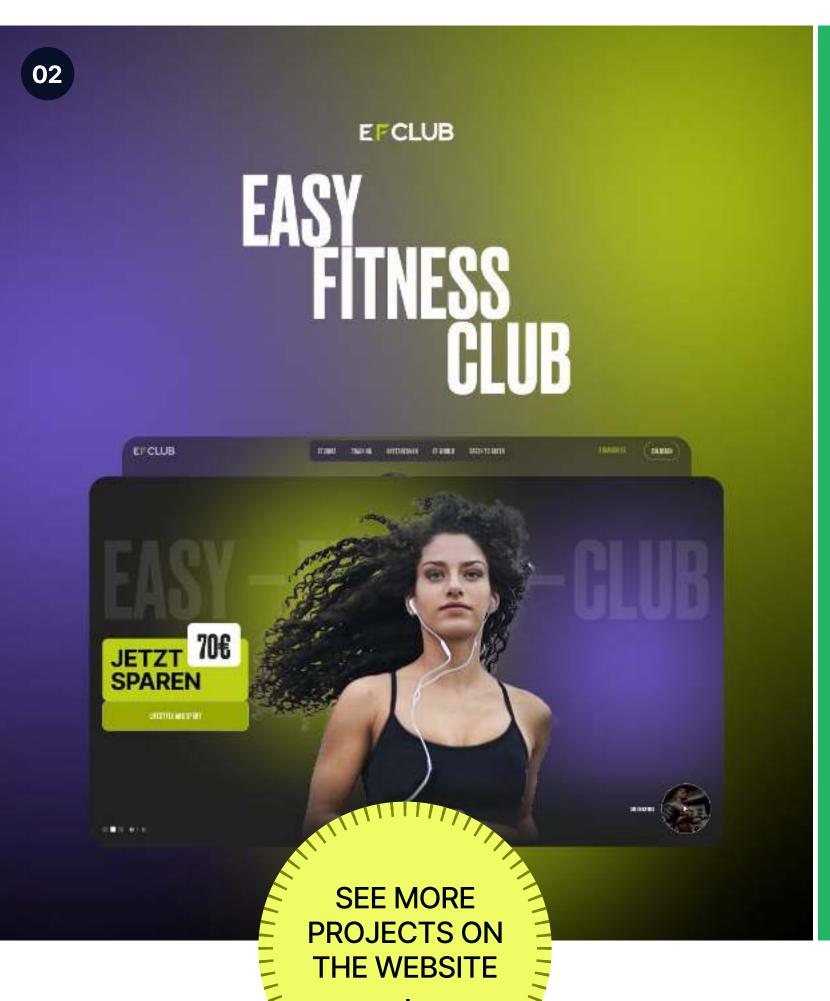

03-STRATEGY

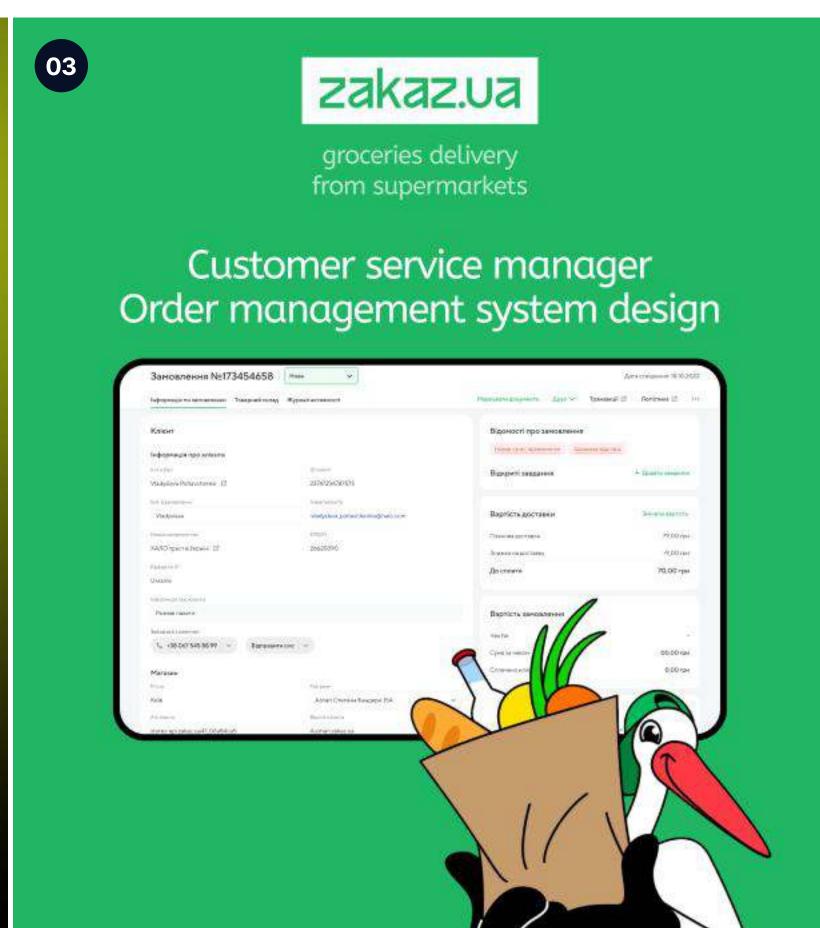

To implement your project, we use modern design tools and methods. We conduct competitor analysis and consumer research, as well as interviews, to identify the main issues and tasks of the project, and we methodically address them, keeping you informed about each stage of the work.

CASE STUDY

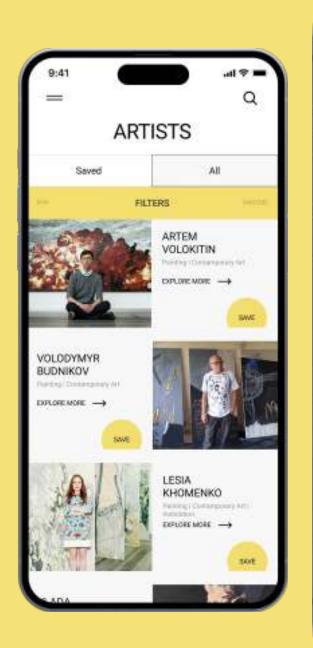

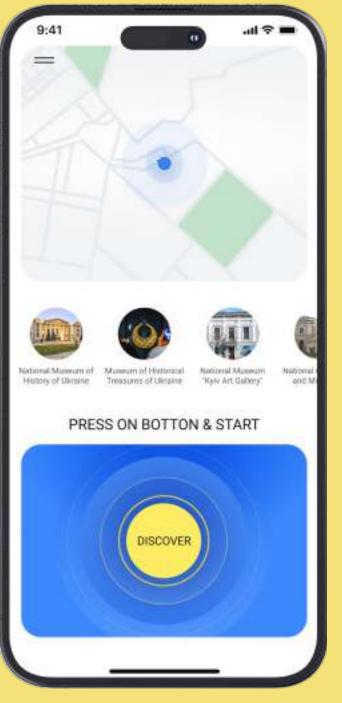

AN APP "ARTJORNEY"

An app for a startup that allows users to quickly find galleries while traveling in unfamiliar cities. Each gallery is marked on the map. During the search, the app identifies the nearest galleries and suggests creating a route.

TARGET AUDIENCE

For those who love culture.

GOALS

- We conducted research and surveys, based on which we created the app's logic and proposed expanded features: selling souvenir products and literature.
- We refreshed the brand and offered a vibrant visual and emotional identity for the app.
- We created a series of social advertisements for the app launch.

WEBSITE FOR THE 'EASY FITNESS CLUB

Website for a fitness studio that is simultaneously a company engaged in network business in the sports sector in Germany. The company offers franchises and promotes an eco-friendly approach to sports activities.

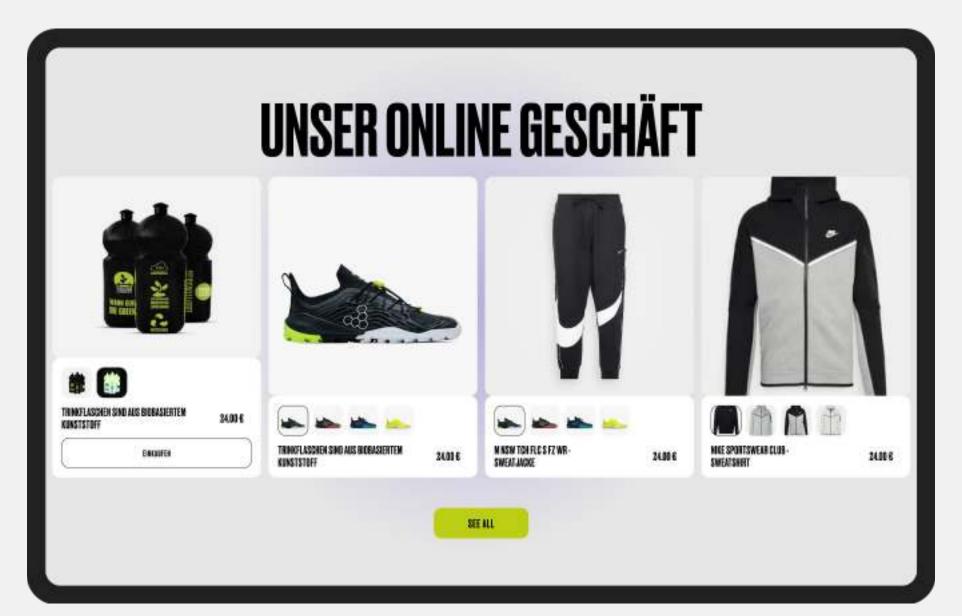

TARGET AUDIENCE

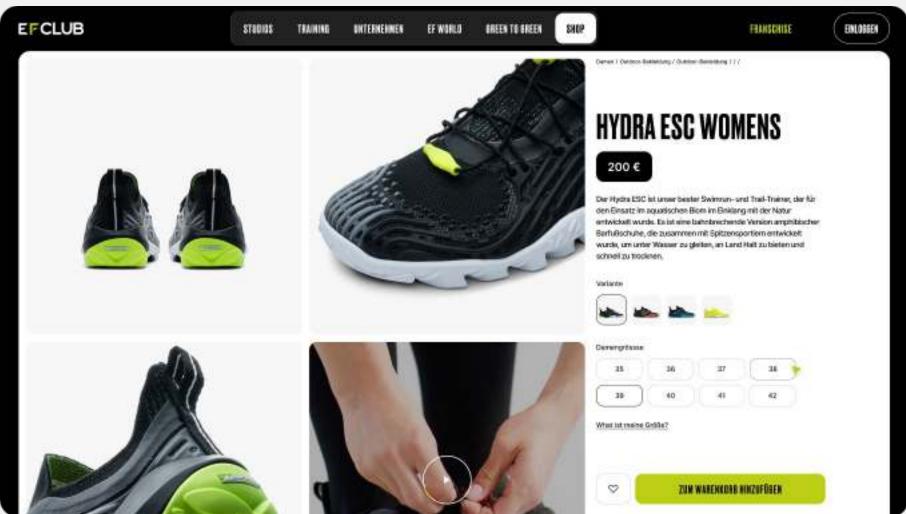

People who regularly engage in sports.

GOALS

- We refreshed the brand and proposed a stylish, simple solution in which the logo transforms for various advertising media.
- We unified the styling and completely revamped the website structure.
- We developed a powerful sales tool: for services, clothing, and a user dashboard where one can choose a trainer and track the training schedule.

ZAKAZ UA

A large company that, during the COVID-19 pandemic, helped people in big cities solve the problem of home delivery of groceries from supermarkets.

TARGET AUDIENCE

Sales Managers

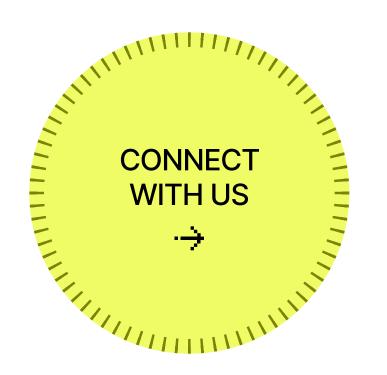

GOALS

- We worked in detail on the order editing section. Identified functional shortcomings and improved the visual style to make it easy for the manager to read and edit the information
- Developed a clear flow for four types of users:
 - 1. Client Manager
 - 2. Order Manager
 - 3. Head Office Management
 - 4. Organization of work and efficiency of team members.
